

Complete Your Wellness Steps

Welcome to DriveTime/GO Financial! All new hires (and spouse if covered on medical) are encouraged participate in the DriveTime Wellness Program, WellTime. We encourage you and your spouse to complete the Wellness Form within 60 days of your benefits effective date to be eligible to keep a discount on your medical rates. If you meet all of the Wellness requirements, you will be eligible to keep the discount on your medical rate. Please check the Wellness Tiers sheet to learn about the Wellness Tiers and see where you may qualify. We also encourage you to utilize the WellTime portal to participate in health based activities and challenges where you can earn additional wellness points!

Wellness Form – Due 60 days after your benefits are effective

Step 1: Biometric Testing/Annual Physical/Tobacco Affidavit Wellness Form

- Make an appointment with a doctor for Biometric Testing (Fasting Cholesterol and HbA1c) and a Physical.
- Print the Wellness Form and complete the personal information and tobacco status sections.
- Bring the Wellness Form to your appointment.

Your doctor should complete the form after your lab results have been received and fax the completed form to ADURO(our confidential Wellness vendor).

Please note: If your test results indicate that you can't meet certain requirements, but your doctor is helping you manage that condition, or your doctor doesn't feel that the biometric result presents a health risk then your doctor can complete an Appeal Form and you will pass that requirement.

Step 2: Access the WellTime site to participate in Wellness challenges

Visit www.drivetime.mywellmetrics.com to access your account on the WellTime portal.

When logging in for the first time, you will click on the green "get started" button. Enter the information requested. Please note: spouses will need to enter in their personal information and the employee's 5 digit work id number with an "s" on the end.

You will earn 25 points for logging into the site for the first time! Explore the many health and fitness based challenges the site has to offer and earn an additional 25 points for joining your first challenge!

Optional: Take a brief health assessment to earn an additional 200 points!
